

Research Associate: Urban Planning

The Organisation

The Institute for Transportation and Development Policy (ITDP) works with cities worldwide to promote transport solutions that reduce traffic congestion, air pollution, and greenhouse emissions while improving urban livability and economic opportunity. ITDP is a not-for-profit organisation with its headquarters in New York City. ITDP works in South Africa, Tanzania, Uganda, Kenya, India, China, Indonesia, Brazil, Mexico, and the United States.

Since 2021, ITDP is represented in India by ITDP Pvt Ltd and works with governments, multilateral agencies, and civil society to make visible, on-the-ground improvements by providing technical expertise, policy solutions, research publications, and training programmes. Information about ITDP's work in India can be found at www.itdp.in

About the Position

We are looking for an urban planner with a strong commitment to equity and sustainability, and a passion to improve urban life in India. They will provide in-depth technical support for project planning, project implementation, policy research, and capacity building in multiple fields, including complete streets, transit-oriented development, and strategic mobility planning in India.

They will also develop technical reports, policy drafts, guidelines, and training modules. The ideal candidate has a demonstrated ability to work creatively with a diverse team. The position will also involve engaging with a diverse set of people—civic officials, politicians, civil society agents, media, and others—to help build support for sustainable and equitable urban transport.

They will have a chance to hone their technical knowledge and research skills while gaining exposure to the fields of sustainable transport, city planning, urban design, and municipal governance. The position is based out of Chennai, but the candidate is expected to support state/national level programmes and may need to travel to other project cities as and when required. They will report to the Deputy Manager. They will work closely with ITDP India's city teams, head office staff, and international experts.
